

TABLE 22—Curriculum, Army Occupational Therapy Course, Medical Field Service School, Fort Sam Houston, Tex., 1952-54

[Didactic phase: 34 weeks]

Subject	Hours
	Projected, May 1952	Class 1, 1952 (44-hour week)	Class 3, 1954 (40-hour week)
Medical:
Anatomy ¹	78	93	150
Functional anatomy	0	0	75
Kinesiology	90	90	0
Medical lectures ¹	72	72	0
Medical terminology	0	0	3
Neuroanatomy ²	40	25	0
Neurology ²	18	18	0
Orientation to:
Medical conditions	0	0	19
Neurological conditions	0	0	30
Orthopedic conditions ¹	0	0	30
Pediatric conditions	0	0	16
Surgical conditions ¹	0	0	15
Orthopedics ¹	36	36	0
Pathology ¹	18	18	30
Physical medicine and rehabilitation ¹	0	0	38
Physiology ¹	54	54	54
Psychiatry	36	36	54
Psychology	54	⁵⁴ 54	5
Psychology of ill and handicapped	0	0	16
Rehabilitation in occupational therapy	54	54	31
Theory of occupational therapy:
General medicine and surgery ...	36	36	36
Neuropsychiatry	36	36	36
Physical disabilities	36	36	36
Other:
Administration of occupational therapy	4	4	4
Clinical observation and demonstration	0	0	24
Ethics	2	2	2
History of occupational therapy ...	2	2	0
Introduction to occupational therapy	0	0	7
Journal club	20	20	20
Nursing service in the hospital ¹ ...	2	2	2
Remedial reading	30	31	0
Selected nursing techniques ¹	6	8	6
Workshop activities:
Ceramics	72	72	60
Design	0	0	20
General crafts	180	131	53
Leatherwork	0	0	38
Metalwork and jewelry	72	72	76
Weaving	72	72	80
Woodwork and plastics	144	120	110
Military subjects ⁴	0	0	0
Nonacademic subjects	232	302	184
Total	1,496	1,496	1,360

¹ Subject taken with physical therapy students.

² Included in anatomy in 1953 and 1954.

³ Included basic and abnormal psychology and psychology of the ill and handicapped.

⁴ Twenty-seven hours of instruction in military subjects were added to the curriculum in fiscal year 1953 in lieu of nonattendance at basic orientation course.